Chicago Telegram, (Dem.), Nov. 6, '84.

Now that the election is well over and out of the way, it is a good time for the press of this country, and the people generally, to express their honost convictions regarding the contemptible attitude in which the great, white-souled St. John has posed before his numerous audiences. It is just as well to handle this conscienceless political mounte-bank without gloves—either hard or soft. John P. St. John was elected governor of Kansas by the votes of republicans. He was carried into prominence on the tidal wave of a temperance reform, but he was safely iodized in the gubernatorial chair by the aid of the republican votes. His conduct in office gave great offence to the democratic party, and that party planned for his defeat before the meeting of the convention. In this matter it failed. The republican party, the democratic nominee, and tried to electhin, but failed.

It will be noticed that in the whole political career of St. John, he owes all the prominence he ever attained to the republican party. What was the course of this man in the future? While we are, certainly, greatly indebted to him for his part in creating dissatisfaction and division in the republican ranks, we cannot too strongly condemn the methods of any man who betrays his friends.

ranks, we cannot too strongly condemn the methods of any man who betrays his friends. The course of St. John from the time of his defeat in Kansas up to the night which closed the late political campaign, was that of a low-minded, jealous and soured politician, who, for the sake of gratifying his personal spite, was willing to sell out to the democracy of this country the very menthe very party which had elevated him to his official position in Kansas. The democratic party accepted his aid in dividing the republican ranks and the price they paid him was of the same nature as that which was paid to Judas Iscariot. The democratic party contains not one element which is favorable to the passage of such sumptuary laws as St. John advocates. He knows this as well as we do. The personal canvass of John P. St. John in aid of democracy was the most shameless exhibition of personal hatred which has ever been witnessed in this country. And by that canvass he has lost the confidence of all republicans and the respect of democrats.

The rheumatism which strikes you down suddenly and completely is the kind which should be dealt with heroically. It is in this kind of rheumatic attacks that Athlophoros is so peculiarly valuable. Says Mr. A. R. Noton of Bristol, Conn.: "Was suddenly stricken with rheumatism in my back. For four days could not tuen myself in bed, and when lifted up could not bear my weight on my feet. After all the usual remedies had failed I tried Athlophoros. In twenty minutes after taking the first dose, I could bear my weight on my feet, and in two days was able to get about and attend to busines."

PUZZLE. N. H. DOWNS FOR COLDS

Lung Fever, and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, when other remedies fail. For sale by all dealers. HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Prop's, Burlington, Vt.

Cut up fine and dissolve one half bar in half gallen of hot water. Pour half this dissolved soap into a tub with just sufficient hot water to cover a boiler full of clothes. Then put the clothes in to soak, rubbing plenty of soap in the most soiled parts. Be sure that the soaking water is hot; soak the clothes half an hour; stir them occasionally so that they may got the full benefit of the hot suds; pour the remainder of the dissolved soap into the boiler, adding sufficient water to cover the clothes; wring them lightly out of the suds. Soap the stail ned spots and place loosely in the hoiler; boil to to no minutes, rime well, blue and hang todry. Be not crowd the boiler too full. The same boiling water may be used for further boiling by adding a little soap to each boilerfull of clothes. Fannels and prints should not be boiled, only a little rubbing required after soaking. This soap will cleanse clothing as thoroughly as any other without the use of the boiler. We prefer and recommend the boiling process as in itself a cleansing process, saving labor, the wear of the wash-board, and being the best disinfectent known, it is ensier to boil the dirt out than to rub it out. You can cleanse perfectly the finest fabric without injury; the finest point lace and lace curtains. Soak point lace in het suits made with this soap, press water out with the hand; boil 3 to 3 minutes in clean suits made with this soap, rinse thoroughly, press carefully between the folds of a towel, roll in a dry towel, and iron between pieces of old flancel. Soak curtains so to 30 minutes and boil, to 30 minutes, riuse, stretch on frame, or pin every scallep to carpet over a sheet to dry; no ironing required.

Be sure and ask for ELECTRIC-LIGHT SOAP, and take no other. Sold by leading wholesale and retail grocers everywhere. Dealers may obtain our goods upon application. Electric Soar Manufacturing Co., Indianapolis, Ind., and 56-28 South Water St., Chicago, Ill. ts purchaser after three weeks wear. If not four perfectly satisfactory in every respect, and its price refunded by seller. Main a variety of etyles and prices. Sold by first-claim everywhere. Beware of worthless imitation kone genuine unless it has Ball's name on the box. CHICACO CORSET CO., Chicago, Ill.
